

Watch the Story Suggestions

Below are some possible sentences that explain the Lava story. This exercise is flexible and you can choose which two events to talk about, these answers below are only suggestions.

1. The birds had been flying over the island when the male volcano smiled.
2. The whales had already jumped out of the water by the time the turtles snuggled.
3. The female volcano had already exploded by the time the male volcano sank.
4. The male volcano had sunk when the turtles were swimming in the sea.
5. The female volcano had been feeling lonely before the male volcano exploded.
6. The male and female volcanoes had already met each other by the time the sun rose over the sea.