

Countable and Uncountable Quantifiers Sentences to Practise

Read each sentence out loud to practise your pronunciation. Focus on the correct pronunciation of the quantifier in each sentence.

Quantifiers

1. There are no aliens on our planet.
2. Several people are learning English as a foreign language.
3. There are some scissors in the drawer.
4. There aren't many polyglots.
5. There isn't much cake left. Did you eat it all?
6. Are there any babysitters free this weekend?
7. How much water do we have left? None.
8. How many potatoes do we need for this recipe? One.
9. There is plenty of chocolate left for you in the tin.
10. There is lots of rubbish outside!
11. I need to do a lot of work to improve my English!
12. There is a great deal of chaos at my workplace.
13. There are only a few apples left, so don't eat all of them!
14. I only want a little milk in my coffee, please.
15. There are a number of problems with my computer.
16. There is a large amount of unopened post waiting at my front door.
17. I have lots of English books if you want to borrow them?
18. I'm sorry, I have a lot of work to do.
19. There are plenty of other options.
20. Only a few results have come back, so we're still waiting.