
A

Below are numerous sentences that all have the article “a” in them. You should read each sentence aloud using the weak form pronunciation of this article whilst connecting it to the words either side.

Indefinite Article A

/ə/

1. Do you have a pen that I could borrow?
2. Have you ever seen a giraffe before?
3. There isn't a café in my village.
4. I just bought a new computer.
5. This is a difficult topic to learn.
6. I don't have a problem with that.
7. What a crazy day it's been today!
8. It's a beautiful day outside.
9. This is a new restaurant in town. It's supposed to be very good.
10. Can you send me a message to confirm that?
11. Did you get a taxi here?
12. I watched a funny video about a dog talking.
13. I'm a teacher.
14. My sister is a small business owner.
15. There's a fantastic grammar book that helped me with that.
16. Is that a television?
17. Did you put a letter in the post box?
18. Have you ever written a letter before?
19. I went to a lovely shop today.
20. I bought a bright blue t-shirt because it was in the sale.

An

Below are numerous sentences that all have the article “an” in them. You should read each sentence aloud using the weak form pronunciation of this article whilst connecting it to the words either side.

Indefinite Article An
1. What’s an arachnophobe? 2. Have you ever seen an elephant before? 3. I used to work in an organisation that helped people in Africa. 4. Did you buy an apple like I asked? 5. Do you have an orange cardigan that I could borrow? 6. He told me it was an original copy from 1812. 7. What an awful day! 8. My brother is an artist. 9. I met an Australian person at work today. 10. Did you buy me an iPhone for my birthday? 11. I want you to read an article about hamsters. 12. I have been an orphan for most of my life. 13. She had an argument with her husband. 14. Let’s put an end to all of this! 15. I think that’s an amazing idea! 16. There’s an old bakery on the corner next to the hairdressers. 17. You have an interesting point of view, but I don’t agree with you. 18. I was bitten by an ant yesterday and it really hurts! 19. I went to the zoo this morning and saw an orangutan. 20. The Caribbean would be an ideal place to go on holiday.

/ən/

Some

Below are numerous sentences that all have the article “some” in them. You should read each sentence aloud focusing on the correct pronunciation of the article “some”.

Indefinite Article Some

/sʌm/

1. Could you buy me some shampoo, please?
2. I need to get some apple juice, we've run out.
3. Give me some advice on my situation.
4. Could you give me some information about this city?
5. Do you have some money that I could borrow?
6. I really want some chocolate right now.
7. Let's order some popcorn whilst we're waiting for the film to start.
8. He bought me some beautiful flowers.
9. I think I'll get her some perfume for Christmas.
10. I'm so thirsty. Could you get me some water, please?
11. Could we have some bread whilst we're waiting for our food?
12. There are some nice coffee shops in town.
13. There are some new teachers in school today.
14. I must write that down! Can you pass me some paper, please?
15. Let's put some chairs in this corner for people to sit down.
16. I need to buy some new shoes because these ones are broken.
17. I sold some jeans online yesterday.
18. There are some exercises online to help you practise.
19. I must do some exercise!
20. Mum said there's some ice-cream in the freezer.