

All Things Articles Course Objectives

Tick off the objectives as you go through the course.

-  Understand what an article is and be able to use it correctly in a sentence ☐
-  Recognise situations when the indefinite article should be used ☐
-  Understand that the letters H, O and U are exceptions and use the correct indefinite article when a word begins with these letters ☐
-  Understand which word in a sentence helps you choose the correct indefinite article ☐
-  Express letters of the alphabet using the correct indefinite article ☐
-  Pronounce a, an and some correctly ☐
-  Use weak forms and connected speech to correctly pronounce a and an in a sentence ☐
-  Understand what the schwa sound is, when it is used and be able to pronounce it correctly ☐
-  Use the definite article in the correct situations ☐
-  Know which countries use the definite article in their names ☐

-  Know there are two ways to pronounce the definite article and understand when you should use each pronunciation ☐
-  Use the zero article correctly in sentences ☐
-  Use articles correctly with the words earth, space, school, prison, jail, hospital, university, college, church and bed ☐
-  Use articles correctly when referring to a plural group of people ☐
-  Use articles correctly when using titles of people ☐
-  Explain why it's possible to use articles with some words and how this changes meaning ☐
-  Pronounce the words earth, space, school, prison, jail, hospital, university, college, church and bed correctly ☐