

Indefinite Articles Course Objectives

Tick off the objectives as you go through the course.

-  Identify indefinite articles in a sentence and understand why they are being used ☐
-  Recognise the situations when a, an or some should be used ☐
-  Understand that the letters H, O and U are exceptions and use the correct indefinite article when a word begins with these letters ☐
-  Understand which word in a sentence helps you choose the correct indefinite article ☐
-  Express letters of the alphabet using the correct indefinite articles ☐
-  Pronounce a, an and some correctly ☐
-  Use weak forms and connected speech to correctly pronounce a and an in a sentence ☐
-  Understand what the schwa sound is, when it is used and be able to pronounce it correctly ☐