Hello everyone! I'm Hannah, an English teacher from Virtually Fluent and today we are going to learn the most basic vocabulary in the dining room.

0'24

The most important piece of furniture in the dining room is the _____. This is the table. And to sit at the table, like what I'm sitting on here. This is a _____. Table and chair.

0'40

There are lots of utensils that we use to eat in the dining room. First of all we have this, which is a _____. A big circle that is flat and we eat off the plate. The next thing is a _____. Very similar to a plate because you eat out of this. But you can see it's a lot higher, so you can put liquid inside here. For example, cereal or soup, you would eat from this bowl.

The next things are for drinking. So we have two important things. We have a _____, this is a glass and this is a _____. The difference is the material. A glass is glass and a cup is normally plastic but they both have the same function, you drink out of the glass or the cup.

1'45

And the final three important things are what you use to eat. So we have over here, a _____. This is a spoon. And we have a _____. This is a fork. And finally a _____. This is a knife. This is the same word for cutting in the kitchen but that's a lot bigger and a lot sharper.

2'18

So let's quickly review. We have

- Table
- Chair
- Plate
- Bowl
- Cup
- Glass
- Spoon
- Fork
- And finally knife
