

“Waterloo” Useful Phrases

Phrase	Definition	Example
To meet one’s destiny	Events happen that were supposed to happen in your life	They met each other in October and now they’re getting married. They’ve met their destiny .
To hold somebody back	To stop somebody from doing something, both physically and emotionally	He is going to jump in the pool. Hold him back!
I win when I lose	Even if you lose something, you still feel like you’ve won because of a good outcome	We broke up, but it was such an amazing relationship and I’m glad I experienced it- I won when I lost.