Hello everyone! I'm Hannah, an English teacher at Virtually Fluent. Today, we are going on a mini-tour of the bedroom to learn all that key bedroom vocabulary.

To start, you can see I am sitting on the bed, which is the main piece of furniture in a bedroom. Bed in the bedroom. On top of my bed, you can see lots of other things. For decoration I have these, which are cushions. Only for decoration, I have lots and lots of cushions.

This is the duvet, which is a big thick piece of material to put over your body and stay nice and warm when you are sleeping. And your head, for sleeping, rests on this, which is a pillow. Again, I have lots of pillows and lots of cushions. And that is all the main equipment on the bed.

Next to my bed on both sides I have this piece of furniture which is called a bedside table because it is a small table at the side of the bed, bedside table. On this bedside table you can see a lamp which gives us light in the room. I also have photos, tissues and inside this bedside table you can see this, which is a drawer. This is something that goes out of a big piece of furniture and returns back inside again.

The final two things in my bedroom are mirror and wardrobe. So, this is a mirror. A long piece of glass where you can see your reflection inside. And this is a wardrobe. It has all my clothes, my shoes, my accessories. Mirror and wardrobe.
