

Transport Listening

- Fred: Hi Clare! How are you?
- Clare: I'm good thanks Fred. How are you?
- Fred: I'm fine thanks. I'm sorry I'm late. I had a horrible journey here. My mum's car broke down at home so I used public transport. I missed the bus and then I ran to the underground station to take the underground instead.
- Clare: That sounds like a complicated journey! It's OK, don't worry.
- Fred: Thanks, Clare. How did you travel here today?
- Clare: I drove here with my mum.
- Fred: Can you drive?
- Clare: Yes! I don't have my licence yet, but now I am 17 years old I am practising in my mum's car.
- Fred: That's so cool! What car does your mum have?
- Clare: It's a red mini-cooper. It's a nice car, but it's a little bit scary driving on the roads in this city.
- Fred: I want to drive, but I'm not 17 years old.
- Clare: When is your birthday?
- Fred: It's next month, September 16th. So I can learn how to drive then. But now I need to use public transport.
- Clare: Do you like using public transport?
- Fred: It's OK. I like taking the train and the bus because you can see all the people and the shops, but on the underground it's dark. You can't see anything! I can't wait to get a car!
- Clare: Oh! I think the film starts now. Let's go inside!
