

Sentence Structure

I like dark chocolate

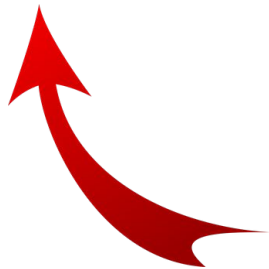

I speak quickly

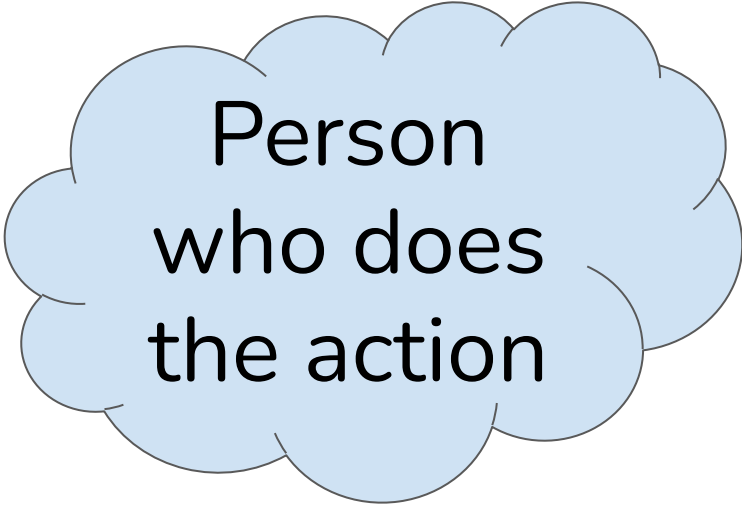

I like dark chocolate

I like dark chocolate

subject

Person who does the action

Subject

Subject

A diagram illustrating the components of a subject. The word "Subject" is written in large red font in the center. Three light blue thought bubbles are connected to it by a series of small circles. The bubbles contain the words "name", "noun phrase", and "pronoun".

name

pronoun

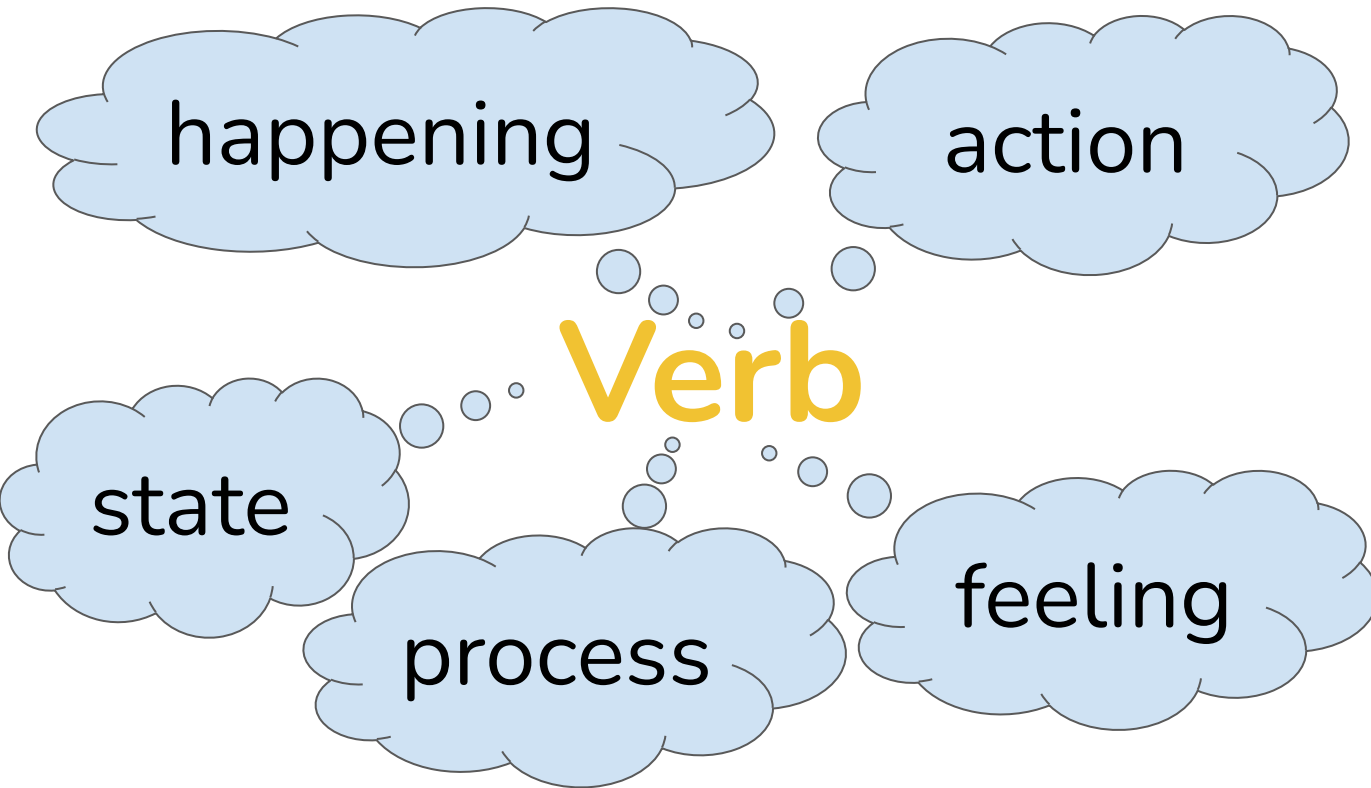

noun
phrase

I like dark chocolate

verb

I like dark chocolate

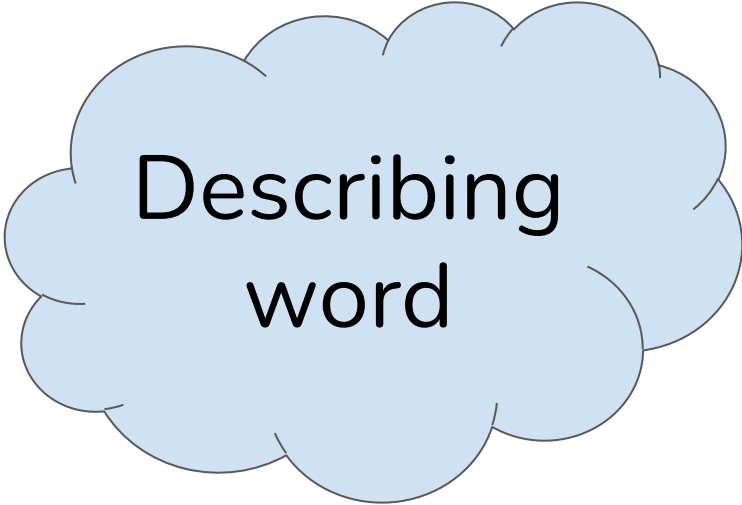

verb

I like dark chocolate

adjective

Describing
word

Adjective

I like dark chocolate

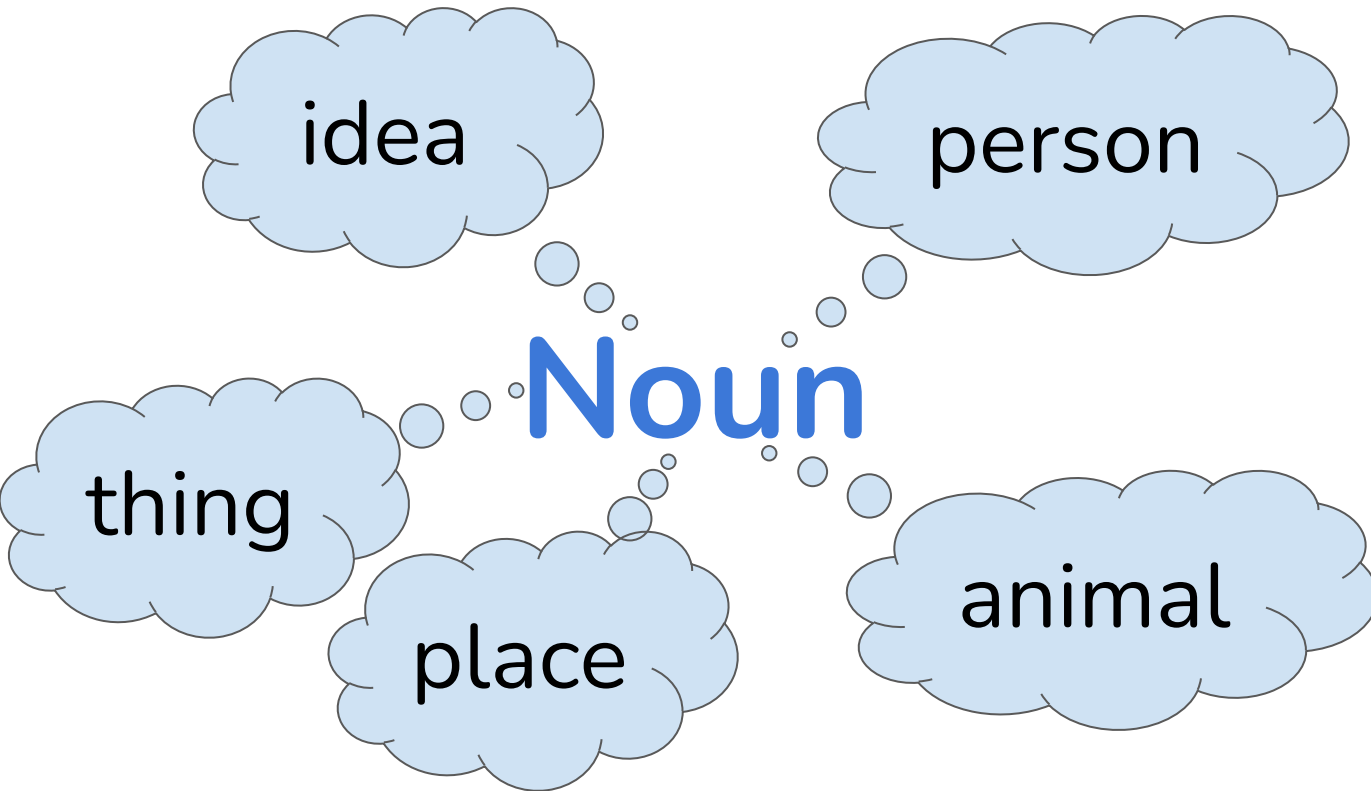

adjective

I like dark chocolate

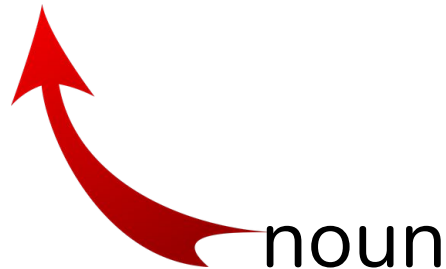

noun

I like dark chocolate

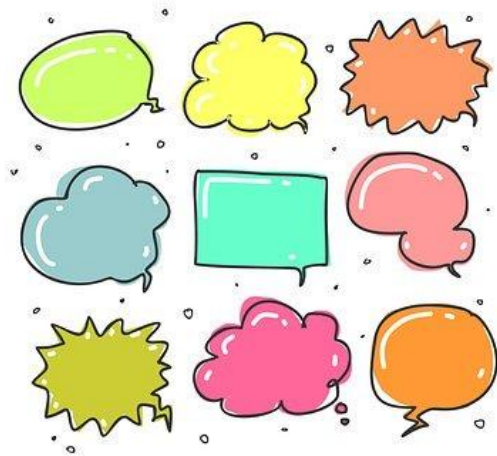

noun

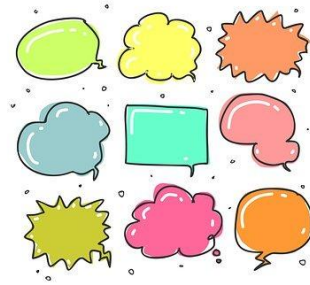

I like dark chocolate

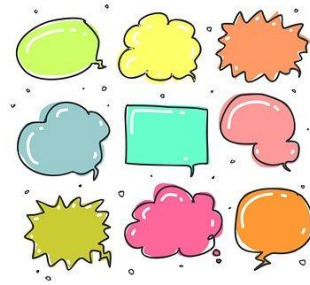

I speak quickly

I speak quickly

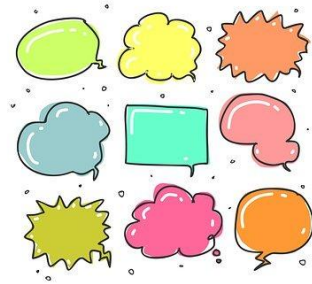

subject

I speak quickly

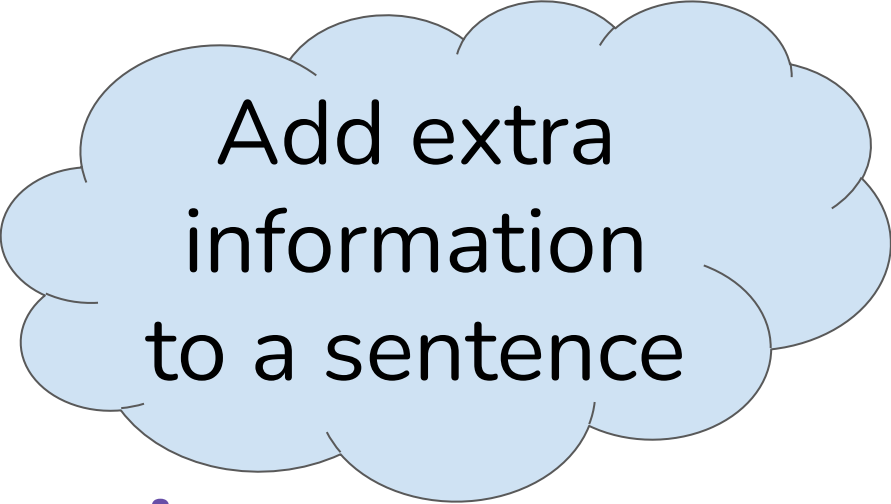

verb

I speak quickly

adverb

Add extra information
to a sentence

Adverb

Adverb

The diagram features the word 'Adverb' in a large, bold, purple font at the center. Three light blue thought bubbles are arranged around it: one above labeled 'time', one to the left labeled 'place', and one below labeled 'manner'. Small circles connect the bubbles to the central word. A large, empty light gray rectangular box is located in the top right corner of the slide.

time

place

manner

I speak quickly

adverb

1. Noun

2. Verb

3. Subject

4. Adjective

5. Adverb

1. Noun → person, animal, place, thing, idea

2. Verb → action, feeling, process, state, happening

3. Subject → name, noun, noun phrase, pronoun

4. Adjective → describes a noun

5. Adverb → time, manner or place to add information