

Change of Plan

Read these sentences below then rewrite them using a “will” structure to express the change in plan.

Example: we wanted to go to the castle but it was closed. The cathedral is open though.

We wanted to go to the castle but it was closed. Now we'll go to the cathedral.

- 1) My sister wants to go on a skiing holiday but the slopes are closed. We can go camping instead.
- 2) We missed the train at 4pm so we can get the next train at 5pm instead.
- 3) The weather forecast said it was going to be sunny today but there are lots of black clouds outside.
- 4) I wanted to go shopping but the shops were all closed so we can go to a restaurant for some lunch instead.
- 5) At the restaurant I was going to have fish and chips but they have run out and recommended the spaghetti instead.
- 6) The tickets for the romantic comedy have all sold out so we can see the horror film instead.
- 7) We were going to play tennis but my racket was broken so we can play football instead.
- 8) I was going to wear a dress for the wedding but I've changed my mind, I think a skirt and a top is better.
- 9) I have a doctor's appointment on Monday but I cannot go so now I have changed it to Tuesday instead.
- 10) We were going to play a board game but some of the pieces were missing so we can play cards instead.