Driving

Can you drive?

Yes, I can drive

No, I can't drive

Driving

At what age can you drive in your country?

You can start driving a car when you are 17 years old in the UK

Driving

First, you apply for a provisional driving licence and this means you can start to learn (with a driving instructor or an experienced driver).

Then you must pass a theory test about the Highway Code in the UK. If you pass this, you can take the practical test. You can only take these tests when you are 17 years old or older.

Driving

What do you do if your car breaks down?

You need to visit a mechanic who can repair your car

Driving

When we talk about this activity, we have different verbs;

To drive

To race a car

To go racing
