Coronavirus (Part 2)

To test positive
tuː tɛst pɒzətɪv

To have a test for coronavirus and the results show that you have the virus
My sister tested positive for coronavirus

To test negative
tuː tɛst nɛgətɪv

To have a test for coronavirus and the results show that you don't have the virus
I tested negative for coronavirus

To contract a virus
tuː kɒntrækt ə vaɪərəs

To get/catch a virus
My sister has contracted coronavirus

To pull through tuː pʊl θruː

To survive and recover
Luckily, my sister pulled through

To spread tuː sprɛd

To give a virus to other people
My sister spread the coronavirus to my parents

To self-isolate tuː sɛlf-aɪsəleɪt

To separate yourself from other people so you cannot contract or spread the virus
All my family needed to self-isolate

Symptomatic
sɪmptəmætɪk

To have a virus and visible symptoms of this virus. E.g. a cough, a temperature, difficulty breathing.
My sister was symptomatic when she had coronavirus

Asymptomatic
eɪsɪmptəmætɪk

To have a virus but no visible symptoms so you do not know you have this virus
Lots of people are asymptomatic when they contract coronavirus

Isolated aɪsəleɪtɪd

To be alone, away from other people, often feeling lonely
My grandma has been very isolated during this pandemic

Viral
vaɪərəl

Anything related to a virus Coronavirus is a viral disease

Virtually FLUENT