

Connect the Sentences Answers

-
- 1) I work hard and very long hours. I like to have some free time to go running.
 - a) I work hard and very long hours, however, I like to have some free time to go running.
 - b) Although I work hard and very long hours, I like to have some free time to go running.
 - 2) I am a pilot. I am scared of heights.
 - a) I am a pilot, however, I am scared of heights.
 - b) Although I am a pilot, I am scared of heights.
 - 3) He is from the UK. He speaks 5 languages, not just English.
 - a) He is from the UK, however, he speaks 5 languages, not just English.
 - b) Although he is from the UK, he speaks 5 languages, not just English.
 - 4) She doesn't speak French. She speaks German.
 - a) She doesn't speak French, however, she speaks German.
 - b) Although she doesn't speak French, she speaks German.
 - 5) We came last in the race. We tried our best.
 - a) We came last in the race, however, we tried our best.
 - b) Although we came last in the race, we tried our best.
 - 6) The car is very old and rusty. It still gets us to the places we need to be.
 - a) The car is very old and rusty, however, it still gets us to the places we need to be.
 - b) Although the car is very old and rusty, it still gets us to the places we need to be.
 - 7) The film was very long. We stayed through the entire thing.
 - a) The film was very long, however, we stayed through the entire thing.
 - b) Although the film was very long, we stayed through the entire thing.
 - 8) I can see you tomorrow. I cannot see you on Friday.
 - a) I can see you tomorrow, however, I cannot see you on Friday.
 - b) Although I can see you tomorrow, I cannot see you on Friday.
 - 9) Everybody arrived on time. I was late to the meeting.
 - a) Everybody arrived on time, however, I was late to the meeting.
 - b) Although everybody arrived on time, I was late to the meeting.

- 10) I've never been to Italy. I have been to Paris.
a) I've never been to Italy, however, I have been to Paris.
b) Although I've never been to Italy, I have been to Paris.
- 11) It rains a lot in my country. I love the rain.
a) It rains a lot in my country, however, I love the rain.
b) Although It rains a lot in my country, I love the rain.
- 12) She doesn't have a lot of money. She gives lots of presents to her children.
a) She doesn't have a lot of money, however, she gives lots of presents to her children.
b) Although she doesn't have a lot of money, she gives lots of presents to her children.
- 13) We can't afford a house. We are renting at the moment.
a) We can't afford a house, however, we are renting at the moment.
b) Although we can't afford a house, we are renting at the moment.
- 14) He is a great student. He failed science this semester.
a) He is a great student, however, he failed science this semester.
b) Although he is a great student, he failed science this semester.
- 15) We are best friends. We live on opposite sides of the world.
a) We are best friends, however, we live on opposite sides of the world.
b) Although we are best friends, we live on opposite sides of the world.
- 16) They arrived at the airport on time. They realised they had left their passports at home on the kitchen table.
a) They arrived at the airport on time, however, they realised they had left their passports at home on the kitchen table.
b) Although they arrived at the airport on time, they realised they had left their passports at home on the kitchen table.
- 17) It's her daughter's birthday. She forgot to buy a gift.
a) It's her daughter's birthday, however she forgot to buy a gift.
b) Although it's her daughter's birthday, she forgot to buy a gift.
- 18) London is a beautiful city to visit. It can be very cold in the winter months.
a) London is a beautiful city to visit, however, it can be very cold in the winter months.
b) Although London is a beautiful city to visit, it can be very cold in the winter months.
- 19) She is a really nice person. She isn't very reliable.
a) She is a really nice person, however, he isn't very reliable.
b) Although she is a really nice person, she isn't very reliable.
- 20) We are very healthy. We like chocolate occasionally.
a) We are very healthy, however, we like chocolate occasionally.
b) Although we are very healthy, we like chocolate occasionally.