

Personality Adjectives

| Personality Adjective | Phonetic Transcription | Definition |
|-----------------------|---------------------------|---|
| able | ɛ ɪbl | To have the skill and opportunity to do something |
| afraid | ə f reɪ d | To have a fear of something |
| alone | ə l əʊ n | With nobody else |
| brilliant | b rɪl j ənt | A very positive adjective to say “amazing” |
| busy | b ɪz i | To have very little time available |
| careful | k eə f ʊl | To think about something a lot and pay lots of attention to it before you take a decision |
| difficult | d ɪfɪkə l t | Opp: easy To need a lot of skill and concentration to do something |
| excellent | ɛ ksələ n t | A very positive adjective to say “very good” |
| fast | fɑː s t | To have a very high speed |
| high | haɪ | To have a very big height |
| interesting | ɪ ntrɪstɪ ŋ | Something that makes you want to pay attention |
| lovely | l ʌvli | A very positive adjective to say “beautiful” |
| noisy | n ɔɪz i | To be very loud |
| pleasant | p leɪz n t | A positive adjective to say that you enjoy something |
| poor | pʊə | To have no money |
| pretty | p rɪ t i | To be physically attractive, beautiful |
| quick | kwɪ k | To have a very high speed |
| ready | r ɛ d i | To be prepared and available to do something |
| real | r iə l | To be genuine, not artificial |

| Personality Adjective | Phonetic Transcription | Definition |
|-----------------------|------------------------|--|
| rich | rɪʃ | To have lots of money |
| slow | sləʊ | To have a very small speed |
| soft | sɒft | To be very easy to move and mould |
| special | sp ɛʃəl | A positive adjective to say that something is different, for a good reason |
| strange | streɪndʒ | To be unusual or difficult to understand |
| strong | strɒŋ | To have lots of power, physically |
| sure | ʃʊə | Certain |
| sweet | swi:t | A positive adjective to say that somebody is good and nice |
| useful | ju: sʊl | To be helpful and needed |
| well | wɛl | To have good health and not be sick |
| worried | w ʌrɪd | To feel anxious about something |
| wrong | rɒŋ | Not correct, not true |