

USE ALTHOUGH
AND HOWEVER

Although and However

Although and However

however

although

Although and However

CONJUNCTIVE ADVERB

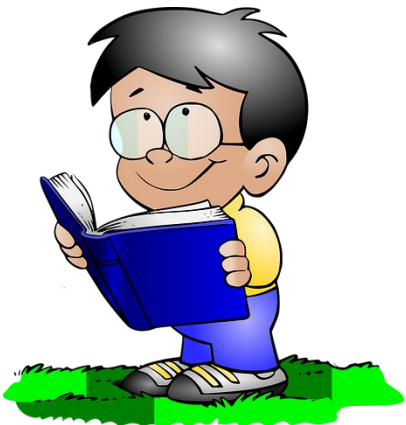

however

- Two contrasting ideas
- But, nevertheless

Although and However

however

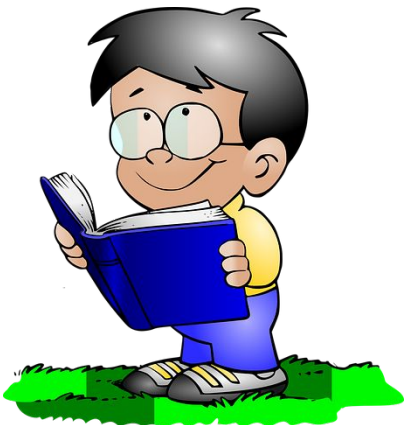

I am tired, however, I'm going to continue studying.

Although and However

however

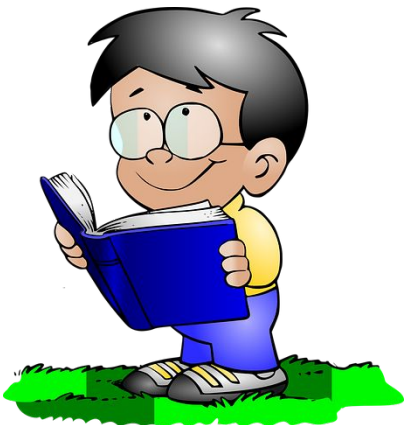

*I am tired, however, I'm going to
continue studying.*

Although and However

however

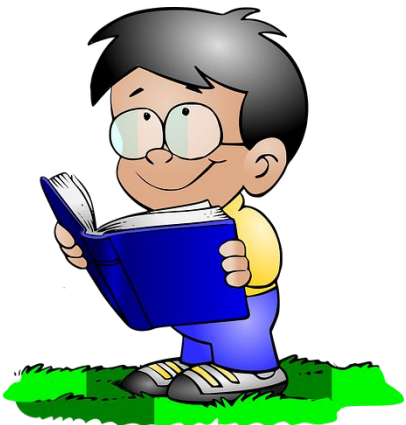

*I am tired; however, I'm going to
continue studying.*

Although and However

however

*I am tired. However, I'm going to
continue studying.*

Although and However

SUBORDINATING CONJUNCTION

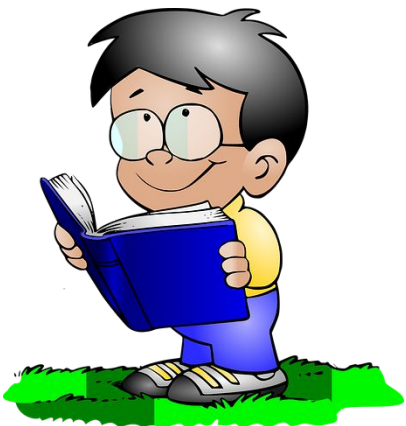

although

- Two combined ideas
- Although + exception to the main rule
- In spite of

Although and However

although

Although I am tired, I'm going to
continue studying.

Although and However

although

Although I am tired, I'm going to
continue studying.

although + clause 1 + clause 2

Although and However

although

I'm going to continue studying

although I am tired.

clause 2 + although + clause 1

*I am tired, however, I'm going to
continue studying.*

*Although I am tired, I'm going to
continue studying.*

I'm going to continue studying although I am tired.

Practice 1

Although and However

Connect the two sentences together

I work hard and very long hours. I like to have some free time to go running.

I work hard and very long hours. I like to have some free time to go running.

Although I work hard and very long hours, I like to have some free time to go running.

I work hard and very long hours, however, I like to have some free time to go running.

I am a pilot. I am scared of heights.

He is from the UK. He speaks 5 languages, not just English.

She doesn't speak French. She speaks German.

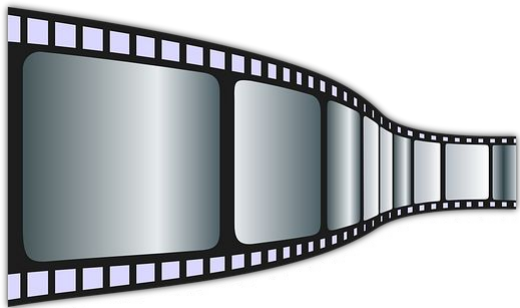

We came last in the race. We tried our best.

The car is very old and rusty. It still gets us to the places we need to be.

The film was very long. We stayed through the entire thing.

I can see you tomorrow. I cannot see you on Friday.

Everybody arrived on time. I was late to the meeting.

I've never been to Italy. I have been to Paris.

It rains a lot in my country. I love the rain.

She doesn't have a lot of money. She gives lots of presents to her children.

We can't afford a house. We are renting at the moment.

He is a great student. He failed science this semester.

We are best friends. We live on opposite sides of the world.

They arrived at the airport on time. They realised they had left their passports at home on the kitchen table.

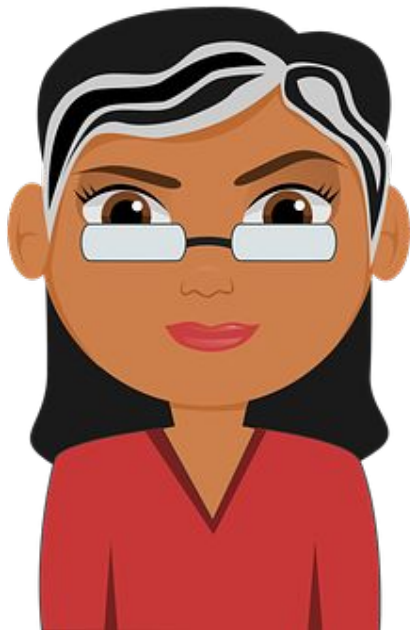

It's her daughter's birthday. She forgot to buy a gift.

London is a beautiful city to visit. It can be very cold in the winter months.

She is a really nice person. She isn't very reliable.

We are very healthy. We like chocolate occasionally.

Practice 2

Although and However

Complete the sentence

Although it is raining outside...

I don't like ice-cream,
however, ...

I'm really tired, however ...

I have so much to do,
however,

Although it was expensive ...

Although I don't earn millions ...

I work hard, however ...

I finished making dinner,
however ...

Although it was so hot ...

It was so cold, however, ...

Although I don't have much free time ...

Although I'm good at my job ...

USE ALTHOUGH AND HOWEVER

REVIEW

Although and However Course

HOMEWORK

COMPLETE THE QUIZ

Link:

<https://virtually-fluent.com/quizzes/although-and-however-quiz/>