

Parts of Speech

Noun

child

butterfly

A noun is a person, animal, place, thing or idea

- Common or proper
- Countable or uncountable
- Singular or plural (if countable)

Verb

jump

think

A verb is an action, process, state, feeling or happening

- Regular or irregular
- Active or stative
- Transitive or intransitive

Adjective

happy

sad

An adjective is a describing word. It describes a noun.

It could be a quantity, quality, size, age, shape, colour, purpose, material, origin or nationality

Adverb

always slowly

An adverb describes a verb, adjective or another adverb

It could be an adverb of time, manner, place, degree or frequency

@virtuallyfluent

Virtually FLUENT