

Rewrite the Sentence

Rewrite the sentence using a distributive to replace the words underlined. (all, half, each, every, both, neither, either)

- 1) Sam and Katy are not vegetarians.
- 2) You can choose chocolate cake or vanilla cake.
- 3) I want the entire group to be punctual.
- 4) The individual animals in the zoo are cared for.
- 5) Sally and Peter are not happy.
- 6) One of the two flowers are still blooming.
- 7) 50% of the students want to change class.
- 8) The individual people in our band are good at their instruments.
- 9) The two dogs are very sweet.
- 10) None of the two vets are free.
- 11) Who ate the whole cake?
- 12) Only 50% of the class passed the exam.
- 13) I couldn't finish my entire homework, sorry.
- 14) One of the two computers is broken.
- 15) The individual singers in the choir are very good.
- 16) The overall project was very good because individual people played their part.
- 17) The two bananas have gone bad.
- 18) One of two teachers will be free at 4pm.
- 19) None of the two dogs will get dinner tonight.
- 20) The whole dinner was terrible.