

Collective Nouns

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

A collective noun is a word used to describe a group of something.

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

team

government

council

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

team

singular

plural

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT

team

singular
1 unit

plural

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT

The team attends a meeting.

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT

The choir sings
every Monday.

Virtually

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

team

singular
1 unit

plural
individual

Virtually

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

The team do their tasks.

Virtually

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

The class wait for their teacher.

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT

The team attended a meaning. It came up with some good ideas.

The team are doing their tasks. They are busy at work.

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT

Apple

UNITED NATIONS

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT

The committee disagrees

The committee disagree

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually

My family are from London

My family is from
New York

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually

everybody

everyone

no one

Singular

nobody

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually

Everybody is happy
Everyone is happy

Nobody is happy
No one is happy

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT

The police protect our cities.

Copyright © 2020 Virtually Fluent Ltd.

Virtually
FLUENT
