

Adverb Order

Adverb Order

As you can see, there are many types of adverbs. In some sentences, you may want to use more than one adverb to add more information to a sentence. However, adverbs must be used a specific order.

Adverb Order

1. Manner
2. Place
3. Frequency
4. Time
5. Reason/Purpose

Adverb Order

manner

place

frequency

time

reason

She sings...

well

at home

every day

in the morning

to practise for her exam

Adverb Order

manner

place

frequency

time

reason

He reads his book...

quickly

in the car

every day

in the evening

to improve his English

Adverb Order

In some cases, two of the same adverb may be used. For example, two adverbs of place. We always place the adverb that provides the most specific information first.

I'm sitting at my desk in my office.