

Languages Conversation

1. Do you think it's important to learn different languages? Why/not?
2. Which languages are quite alien to you? Why do you think this is?
3. Do you think it's beneficial to be born with bilingual parents? Why/not?
4. Do you think it's a good idea to learn phrases and grammar by heart?
Why/not?
5. Is it important to learn colloquialisms, idioms and slang in a target language?
Why/not?
6. Is it necessary to reach fluency in a language? Why/not?
7. Are immersive environments beneficial when learning a foreign language?
Why/not?
8. Would you ever like to work in languages, such as as an interpreter, a translator, a language teacher? Why/not?
9. How can we measure improvement in a foreign language?
10. Are language barriers a real problem in this world? Why/no?
11. Why do you think English has become the lingua franca around the world?
12. What is the best methodology to learn a language, in your opinion? Such as role plays, learning set phrases, working on each skill, to teach yourself.
13. Can we forget language when we're out of practice?
14. Is pronunciation important in a foreign language? Why/not?
15. What is the best age to learn a language from scratch?
16. What advice would you give to help learn new vocabulary?
17. Do you know much about the variations of English? If so, what do you know?
18. Is it important to learn a new language with different accents? Why/not?
19. Which skills do you find easiest and most difficult in your languages? Why?
20. Do you think it's possible to reach proficiency in a foreign language?
Why/not?