

Listening For Questions Transcripts

Dialogue 1 – At a Coffee Shop

Context: Two friends meeting for coffee.

A: Morning! You trying something new today?

B: Yeah, maybe a latte. Have you tried the seasonal flavour?

A: Not yet. Is it any good?

B: Pretty tasty. You thinking about getting one too?

A: Probably. You brought your book with you?

B: Of course. You want to borrow it later?

Dialogue 2 – Making Weekend Plans

Context: Two colleagues chatting over the phone.

A: Hey, got any plans for the weekend?

B: Maybe a hike. You interested?

A: Sounds fun. Where were you thinking of going?

B: Somewhere nearby. You checked the trail conditions yet?

A: Not yet. It's been raining a lot. Think it'll be too muddy?

B: Could be. You got a backup plan?

A: Yeah, we could drive to the lake instead. Seen it recently?

B: Last summer. You want to meet early or later?

Dialogue 3 – At a Bookstore

Context: Two friends browsing books.

A: Looking for anything in particular?

B: Yeah, some mystery novels. You read the latest by Brown?

A: Not yet. Is it any good?

B: Pretty good. You checked the bestsellers section?

A: Not really. You want me to show you?

B: Sure. Have you read anything else by this author?

A: A couple of his short stories. You bring a list of what you need?
