

#	Statement	Speaker	Textual Evidence
1	Experienced a scenic detour that caused a delay.	Emma	“the device suddenly rerouted me through a scenic route along the river”
2	Had to pull over twice to check directions.	Emma	“I had to pull over twice to consult both the GPS and a paper map”
3	Almost collided with a cyclist and had to brake sharply.	Emma	“A cyclist appeared suddenly, forcing me to brake sharply”
4	Engine light came on, prompting an inspection of oil and tyre pressure.	Jack	“Midway through the motorway, my engine light came on, indicating a potential mechanical issue”
5	Took a detour after checking the car to avoid congestion.	Jack	“Eventually, after a thorough inspection, I restarted the car and continued along a slightly longer detour to avoid congestion”
6	Encountered rush-hour traffic with impatient drivers nearby.	Sofia	“During rush hour, I was caught in a major traffic jam...impatient drivers began tailgating and honking incessantly”
7	Monitored blind spots constantly while	Sofia	“I had to remain extremely vigilant, constantly checking my blind spots and

	navigating narrow roads.		maintaining a safe distance from other vehicles”
8	Arrived late but appreciated the unexpected scenery.	Emma	“While I enjoyed the unexpected views of the river and countryside...arrive later than usual”
9	Was pulled over by police and had to show documents.	Liam	“I was unexpectedly pulled over by the police at a junction...requested my provisional licence, insurance, and car registration”
10	Followed GPS directions carefully to avoid stalling the car.	Jack	“I also had to keep an eye on the GPS, which was suggesting a detour...carefully navigate a series of unfamiliar side roads”
11	Maintained calm under pressure despite road rage from other drivers.	Sofia	“I was caught in a major traffic jam...impatient drivers...road rage...Despite arriving later than expected, I felt relieved that I had avoided any collisions”
12	Stopped at a service area to inspect minor car issues.	Jack	“I pulled over at the next service area, where I inspected the oil level, checked the tyre pressure...”
13	Observed traffic building up behind while stopped.	Liam	“While waiting, I observed that traffic was starting to build up behind me”
14	Experienced frustration due to repeated detours.	Emma	“The detour made me arrive later than usual, and I realized that relying too heavily on technology can sometimes create more stress”

15	Restarted the car after a safety check and continued driving.	Jack	“Eventually, after a thorough inspection, I restarted the car and continued along a slightly longer detour”
16	Had to slow down for pedestrians and cyclists unexpectedly.	Sofia	“Occasionally, I had to slow down dramatically to avoid pedestrians crossing unexpectedly or cyclists weaving between traffic”
17	Reflected on the importance of hazard perception and patience.	Sofia	“The experience reminded me that patience and attention to detail are just as important as speed when driving”
18	Learned the value of keeping documents and insurance up-to-date.	Liam	“The experience made me reflect on the importance of keeping documents up-to-date and ensuring that I always follow traffic rules”
19	Took an alternative route after the police stop.	Liam	“Once the officer completed the check, I continued along the recommended detour, taking care to monitor my blind spots”
20	Felt relief after confirming the car was safe to drive.	Jack	“By the next day, the car was performing flawlessly...gave me peace of mind and reinforced the importance of regular vehicle checks”