

Practise Intonation

Read each sentence out loud using the intonation appropriate to the situation.

1. I can't believe you did that

Situation: You just saw your friend do something shocking at the park.

2. That's exactly what I needed

Situation: Someone handed you the exact book you were looking for.

3. Are you ready for the presentation?

Situation: You are checking if your colleague is prepared for a meeting.

4. I could help you with the decorations...

Situation: Offering to help politely at a birthday party, slightly hesitant.

5. Sit down, please

Situation: Asking a guest to take a seat in a formal but friendly way.

6. You're coming, aren't you?

Situation: Checking if a friend will attend the weekend party.

7. I think it might work...

Situation: Discussing a tentative plan with a colleague.

8. Oh no, not again

Situation: Frustrated reaction when a meeting is postponed for the third time.

9. Really? You went there alone

Situation: Surprised that someone traveled to a new city by themselves.

10. Well, I suppose we could try it

Situation: Suggesting a cautious approach to a new idea in a group.

11. I said I like apples, not oranges

Situation: Correcting someone politely but firmly about your preference.

12. We bought apples, oranges, and bananas

Situation: Listing items you purchased, natural rise on each item, fall on last.

13. That wasn't what I expected

Situation: Feeling disappointed when a restaurant order is wrong.

14. I can't wait to see the movie

Situation: Expressing excitement to a friend.

15. Maybe we should reconsider

Situation: Suggesting hesitation or doubt during a team discussion.

16. You saw him?

Situation: Surprised reaction to hearing news about a mutual friend.

17. Fantastic job

Situation: Praising a colleague sincerely after a successful report.

18. I guess we'll see what happens

Situation: Hesitant comment about an uncertain situation.

19. Oh, that's wonderful

Situation: Reacting enthusiastically to a friend's good news.

20. Sure, that makes sense

Situation: Responding to a suggestion, possibly with slight sarcasm depending on context.