

Reciprocal Nouns Error Correction

The sentences below contain errors with reciprocal pronouns, following the traditional rule. Explain why the sentences are incorrect then correct them.

1. They helps each other during busy periods.
2. Maria and her colleague respect themselves.
3. The departments compete each other for resources.
4. James helps Anna and Anna helps James.
5. The manager and the assistant emails each other every morning.
6. The team members blamed themselves after the failure.
7. The three partners trust each other's decisions one another.
8. The two companies cooperate one another on this project.
9. She talks to her team and they talk to each other.
10. The students shared their notes with themselves.
- 11.