

Zero Conditional Gapfill

Fill in the gaps with the correct tense of the verbs in brackets.

1. I wash (wash) my car when it gets (get) dirty.
2. I only do (do) my homework when my parents are (be) at home.
3. I chat (chat) with my friends when I have (have) free time.
4. I normally stay (stay) in my bed when I am (be) sick.
5. If you don't buy (not buy) a ticket for the bus, you receive (receive) a fine.
6. If they don't hand (not hand) in the homework by the end of the day, they fail (fail) the course.
7. If you return (return) the book late to the library, you are (be) banned from loaning books for one month.
8. If you delete (delete) an email, it remains (remain- stay) in your "bin" for a month.
9. If the children don't have (not have) an activity to do, they are (be) bored.
10. When I am (be) all alone in my house, it makes (make) me sad.
11. When we don't have (not have) customers in our restaurant, we close (close) early.
12. If you need (need) advice, I am (be) always here.
13. If you don't water (not water) plants, they die (die).
 - a. If you don't put water on plants, they die.
 - b. TO WATER - to give water to something
 - c. Can you water my flowers? Can you water the garden?
14. When it rains (rain) and is (be) sunny, there is (be) a rainbow.
15. If you don't visit (not visit) me regularly, I get (get) sad and lonely.
16. If I cycle (cycle) to work, I feel (feel) fitter and healthier.
 - a. CYCLE - to go on a bike / to ride a bike / to go cycling