

ED Pronunciation Sentences

Read these sentences aloud.

1. I was very bored watching that film.
2. We talked for a very long time on the telephone
3. I have watched that video so many times.
4. I am learning voiced and unvoiced sounds.
5. He has called me today.
6. I don't think they were interested in English grammar!
7. We have phoned the office to find out what is happening.
8. Which form have you filled in?
9. I have studied so hard for this exam!
10. I'm really excited to see my cousin this weekend.
11. The teacher listened very carefully.
12. My son was getting frustrated because he didn't understand the maths. 13. Are you scared of spiders?
14. She was so surprised when we arrived at her house!
15. We were really worried because we hadn't heard from you in a while. 16. I am very disappointed in you.
17. Are you confused about the pronunciation of ED?
18. He printed the important documents.
19. We are so shocked that he died.
20. Unfortunately, my sister is clinically depressed.