Learn, Study and Teach

Teach is used when you explain or provide information about a topic or subject.

I teach maths.

Learn, Study and Teach

Study is used for the first time you receive information about a subject/topic. (i.e. new information) This could be done by reading, watching videos, listening to a teacher.

I am studying the present tense in English.

Learn, Study and Teach

Learn is the process after studying, when you fully understand and have knowledge of a topic or subject.

I have now learnt the present simple tense in English.
